Summary of reasons for classification:

The DVD entitled Blood On Satan's Claw is classified as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years.

The DVD contains a feature previously examined and classified as a 35mm film by the Chief Censor of Films. The film was classified "Approved for exhibition only to persons sixteen (16) years of age and over". This decision (No. 2301) was registered on 12 February 1973. The DVD feature is identical to the film feature.

The extra components on the DVD include two behind the scenes components, stills, and a trailer related to the feature, notices, and six trailers for other horror features. These components contain fleeting depictions of sexual violence, violence and cruelty that are clearly within the context of old-fashioned horror films and are of the same degree as that in feature. Therefore the DVD will receive the equivalent rating to that of the feature film previously examined. Thus the DVD is classified as objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years, with the descriptive note, "Violence and content that may disturb".
